

Our MISSION
is to feed hungry people

In the San Marcos/Austin area, a family of four needs to earn a living wage of $53,000 a year to cover basic needs. 40% of Central Texas families do not earn this amount.

Since 1984, the Food Bank has been on the front lines in Hays County to bring food to people in need.

Staff and volunteers pick up food seven days a week and distribute it to the community Monday - Friday, providing food an average of 3241 times a month to families in 2008.

Last year, the Food Bank distributed more than a half million pounds of food valued at over $900,000 to hungry people in our community.

Of this total, the Food Bank gave over $400,000 of food to about 60 local agencies that work with low income residents in our area.
